

Being serious about the no net land take target – it's time to start

February 1st, 2024, 11.30-14.00, online

Time	Agenda Item
11:30 – 11:40	Welcome note and introduction German Environment Agency / Oeko-Institute
11:40 – 11:50	Welcome note from the European Parliament Manuela Ripa, MEP
11:50 – 12:05	Land Take: Ongoing activities across the EU Dr. Elisabeth Marquard, UFZ / Dr. Laura von Vittorelli, Oeko-Institute
12:05 – 12:15	Gathering land take data– how the method makes some difference Prof. Dr. Stefan Fina, Hochschule Augsburg
12:15 – 12:30	Implementing No Net Land Take – pioneer countries going ahead? Peter Lacoere, HOGENT Institute, Flanders
12:30 – 12:45	EU Soil Strategy and Soil Monitoring Law – two game changers for land take in Europe? Mirco Barbero, European Commission
12:45 – 13:00	Questions & Answers
13:00 – 13:15	Coffee break
13:15 – 13:55	Together towards net zero – keeping the balance between scientific needs and political and legal feasibility? Round table, with: Robert Wealer, Ministère du Logement et de l'Aménagement du territoire, Luxembourg Margot de Cleen, Ministry of Infrastructure and Water Management, The Netherlands Geert Mertens, Government of Flanders, Department of Environment and Spatial Development, Belgium Georg Schadt, Bundesministerium für Land- und Forstwirtschaft, Regionen und Wasserwirtschaft, Austria Annelaure Wittmann, Ministry of Ecological Transition, France  Facilitator: Dr. Ralph Bodle, Ecologic Institute
13:55 – 14:00	Final Remarks and Closing German Environment Agency

Organizer

German Environment Agency,
Detlef Grimski

With the support of

Oeko-Institute e.V. /UFZ - Helmholtz Centre for Environmental Research

Project coordinator: Dr. Laura von Vittorelli
l.vonvittorelli@oeko.de